Dear Youth Expo Exhibitors:

On behalf of Colorado Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA), I would like to invite you to exhibit at our 2018 FCCLA State Leadership Conference in April with an expected 1,200 students and advisers will be in attendance. FCCLA will host a Youth where exhibitors will host interactive booths for our members to interact with you in a positive meaningful way. The exhibitor's fee is $100.00 for each conference booth, which includes the booth rental fee with a six foot table.

The Block Party is scheduled for Thursday, April 5, 2018 from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Our conference theme this year is "FCCLA The Everlasting Tale" encouraging attendees to immerse themselves in the wonders that come from multi-cultural tales to imagine and dream of one world with many stories. We are asking that booth have more than just information but have an interactive component that focuses around careers and postsecondary plans, which one of our program components for FCCLA. I encourage you to complete the Exhibit Form and return it with payment by March 1, 2018.

I look forward to hearing from you regarding your participation in the 2018 Colorado FCCLA State Leadership Conference. Please feel free to e-mail or contact me at if you have any questions. I thank you for your support of Colorado FCCLA and for helping us uphold our mission to promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences Education.

Sincerely,

Dominique Perri
Vice President of Peer Education
