

Discover how you can strengthen family relationships through FCCLA's national peer education program, Families First.

The FCCLA Families First national peer education program through which youth gain a better understanding of how families work and learn skills to become strong family members. The goals of the Families First program are to:

- help youth become strong family members and leaders for today and tomorrow
- strengthen the family as the basic unit of society

Families First Units

To help members focus their projects, Families First offers five (5) units. Members may complete projects in one (1) or several units. There is no particular order to them; although, "Families Today" might be a good place to start. It covers topics that provide a general overview of families and related issues—

Families Today — Understand and celebrate families

You-Me-Us — Strengthen family relationships

Meet the Challenge — Overcome obstacles together

Balancing Family and Career — Manage multiple responsibilities

Parent Practice — Learn to nurture children
