

Colorado Honorary Membership Award

Award

The intent of the Colorado FCCLA Honorary Membership Award is to honor any person who has rendered outstanding service to the State Association of FCCLA or has helped to advance the Family and Consumer Sciences/Related Service occupations programs in Colorado.

Submission Process

The Colorado FCCLA Executive Council will vote annually on a nominee based on input from members, advisers, and community members from their respective districts that they believe is deserving on this award.

Any person wishing to nominate a deserving individual, please contact the State Adviser.
